

En uno de los cerros de Corral, en el sur de Chile, en la provincia de Valdivia, Matias pinta maravillado el hermoso paisaje con cerros cubiertos de arboles y cuya enorme desembocadura del rio Valdivia mezcla sus aguas con las del gran Oceano Pacifico. Separado por el acaudalado rio, se ve el pequeno poblado de Niebla. Los modestos grupos de casas en las laderas del cerro de enfrente, destacan coloridas en el dia soleado poco habitual en la zona. El azul del cielo, la vastedad del mar a su izquierda y los tonos del rio a la derecha, mezcla de cielo, bosque y pintados botes, lo maravillan. Pero su excitacion no es solo por eso. Su pincel esta inquieto porque habia sido invitado junto a unos pescadores de la caleta Amargos a una jornada de pesca en la noche. Nunca habia estado en el mar en medio de la oscuridad y sentia una gran atraccion por vivir, aunque sea por unas horas, lo que esos hombres padecen a diario para ganar en sustento. Lo que Matias no sabe, es que en ese viaje uno de los tripulantes, junto al mal tiempo que repentinamente se desatara, lo haran vivir horas intensas. Y en esas pocas horas, el sera testigo de los problemas que enfrentan los pobladores de la caleta Amargos, y en particular, del drama de Bernardo que los comprometera a todos en el viaje.
