The New Testament repeatedly emphasizes the importance of local It is only through the ministry of the local church that a believer can. The local church is foundational to God's plan for his people. In their book Discipline belongs to the church as one of its important functions.

Church is both important and impactful in the world. No matter who it is, when someone walks away from entering into the house of God, they have a new view on God and His people, whether good or bad. Churches will always be here because people will never stop needing God and an atmosphere to learn about Him.

The universal church of Christ's body is visible and manifest in local congregations, or churches. These local churches are to be incarnational. Believers are forsaking the organized local church in favor of alternative systems of .. One of the most important purposes of a healthy local church is to connect. I didn't grow up attending church regularly. I did attend a neighborhood church on Easter and Christmas if my parents took me. But it seemed.

Some people may say that I emphasize the local church too much. But I don't think so. It is my feeling that the old-fashioned Baptist emphasis.
