

The Joyful Sound takes you on a transformative spiritual journey through art and music. These beautifully written devotionals will move you through the life of Christ, awakening your senses and your faith. You will walk among the first disciples as you encounter over 20 full color paintings. These masterworks include: Christ in the Storm on the Lake of Galilee ~ Rembrandt van Rijn Christ in the House of Martha and Mary ~ Henryk Siemiradzki Jesus Washing Peters Feet ~ Ford Madox Brown Christ the Redeemer ~ Paul Landowski The Descent from the Cross ~ Rogier van der Weyden The Holy Women at the Tomb of Christ ~ William-Adolphe Bouguereau Christ and the Apostles ~ Tiffany Glass and Decorating Co.... and many more. The stories of the Bible spring to life as they are enhanced by poetry, musical selections, devotional prayers, and journaling suggestions. This book will rejuvenate your private prayer or Bible class discussion group as it enriches your journey of spiritual formation. From Haydn's intimate Seven Last Words of Our Saviour on the Cross to Mahler's mighty Resurrection Symphony these reflections will guide you through some of the most celebrated musical masterpieces written on the life of Christ. Jennifer Rundlett, M.M. is founder of God thru the Arts ministry and author of My Dancing Day: Reflections of the Incarnation in Art and Music. From over 15 years of college classroom experience, she has crafted an inspirational and reflective approach to the arts, inspiring others with her vision of the loving nature of God. Now through these masterpieces that she has carefully chosen and arranged she invites you to encounter Jesus more fully. Through these spiritual exercises you will walk among the first disciples and hear your voice join with the chorus to make a joyful sound.
